

Call for Abstracts

The Egyptological Conference in Copenhagen

It is a great pleasure to announce the fourth annual Egyptological Conference in Copenhagen (ECC), which will be held at the University of Copenhagen on 24th-26th of April 2018. This student-organized conference is aimed at creating a friendly environment to strengthen connections between Egyptologists and Archaeologists across borders and academic levels.

Papers on all topics within Egyptology and Archaeology are welcome. Of special interest this year is Science of Ancient Egypt. Science can be understood as both the science used by the Ancient Egyptians and as the approach used by modern scholars. We kindly invite all graduate and PhD students, as well as independent researchers, to submit an abstract for a presentation at the conference before the deadline on 1st of February 2018. Undergraduate students and others interested in Ancient Egypt are most welcome to attend the conference.

Practical information:

The language of the conference is English. An abstract must consist of a maximum of 200 words and include three keywords. Abstract decisions will be communicated to the presenters by 15th of February. Each presentation is assigned a maximum of 20 minutes and 10 minutes for Q&A. All abstracts must be submitted by the presenting author to: ecc@hum.ku.dk -Please note that only abstracts submitted in PDF format will be reviewed.

Best regards,

The ECC committee
